Industry Arrangement

AMC does not guarantee that either a learner will complete a training product on AMC's scope of registration. During the non-academic period, they can still access the workplace, increase hours to practice, improve their skills and understanding, and catch up with their centre supervisor to understand and complete any pending assessments. In this way, they will learn the importance of skills application for this industry. Ultimately, we will recruit the top performer from each batch in our centres as part of your career progression. The college also cannot guarantee that a learner will obtain a particular academic or employment outcome, which is outside the RTO's control.
