

Empower Your Role in Child Safety

CHCPRT025 – Identify and Report Children and Young People at Risk

Nationally Recognised Training | RTO Code: 41372

AUSTRALIAN MONTESSORI COLLEGE PTY LTD

Why This Course Matters

Every child deserves a safe, nurturing environment. As a childcare professional, your role is vital in protecting and supporting children at risk. From 1 April 2025, under Section 162A of the Education and Care Services National Law, all supervisors and persons-in-charge in early childhood services must complete approved child protection training. This course prepares you to act confidently and responsibly — not only to meet your legal obligations but to make a lasting difference in the lives of children.

About the Unit

CHCPRT025 – Identify and Report Children and Young People at Risk (Release 1, 08/Dec/2022)

Gain practical skills and legal understanding to recognise signs of harm, respond effectively, and report according to current legislation. Delivered by expert trainers, this nationally recognised unit strengthens your professional capacity and workplace confidence.

Inspire Growth from Within

At Australian Montessori College, we encourage child care workers to lead from within. This course is not just a compliance requirement — it's an opportunity to inspire excellence, support your team, and champion a culture of protection and care.

Let your learning set an example for others. When one person leads, others follow.
